Directives contained in the UGC (Minimum Standards for the Award of M.Phil / Ph.D Degree) Regulations, 2009, were implemented in the University by framing comprehensive Regulations of the University of Kerala vide University Order read as (1) above. While upholding the decision of the University in toto, it was directed by the Hon'ble High Court that any further amendments to U.O No.Ac.E1/2016 dated 01.02.2016 shall have to be implemented only with the approval of the UGC.

It was recommended by the Syndicate in its meeting held on 19.11.2016 (Item 22.30) to grant grace time for submission of Theses up to 30th November, 2017 in respect of all research students, who have already exceeded the prescribed time limit of 5 years / 8 years of full time / part-time research respectively, for completing their research, subject to the approval of the Academic Council.

The Standing Committee on the Academic Council examined the above mentioned resolution of the Syndicate in detail and recommended that U.O No.Ac.E1/2016 dated 24.10.2016 be suitably modified to cope with the said resolution of the Syndicate and the revised decision be executed in accordance with the directives contained in judgment of the Hon'ble High Court in WP(C) No.12532 of 2016(N) dated 25.10.2016, and to seek approval of the UGC for the same.

The provision for granting extension of research period beyond the prescribed time limit of 5 years / 8 years of full time / part-time research respectively, for research students covered under UGC Regulations 2009 is dispensed with for accommodating fresh meritorious candidates in the limited number of seats.
